Inter college and intra college EVENTS- OCTOBER 2023

SEMINAR ON ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE AND MACHINE LEARNING

Department of Basic Science organized one day seminar on Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning in association with IQAC & IIC on 03 October 2023 from 8.45 to 10.30. This informative session was handled by Dr. Sujith Ravi founder and CEO of Slice X. whose mission is to make next-generation Artificial Intelligence (AI) universally accessible to anyone, anywhere. He has over 15 years experience inventing & deploying transformative AI technologies across the industry. He is the inventor of Smart Reply, Tensor Flow Lite, the industry's first trillion-scale Graph ML platform and other industry-leading AI & ML technologies used by billions of people across billions of devices.

More over, he added that the ability of a computer-controlled system to perform tasks that are mainly associated with human beings is called Artificial Intelligence (AI). The AI is a simulation of a machine's natural intelligence that is actually programmed for communicating and learning human actions. They can perform human-like task and technologies merging with AI is continuing to grow.

Machine learning is a part of Artificial Intelligence that allows software applications in becoming more accurate at predicting outcomes without the need of being explicitly programmed.
